

HOTEL GOTHAM MAN, FOUND IN WRONG HOUSE, HELD

Manager Ferris Gives Bail on Charge of Forcing His Way In.

Charles W. Ferris, manager of the Hotel Gotham, was today held in $1,000 bail, on a charge of forcible entry into a furnished room house, where he had neither a residence nor acquaintances. He will be given a further examination on next Thursday, and in the meantime the police will attempt to unravel the mystery.

Mr. Ferris was arrested last night after a fight and a chase, and at first he was charged with being a suspicious person. This charge was changed later, and in the complaint he was accused of entering the house to commit a felony, larceny or malicious mischief, and that he had assaulted Frank Costello, a young man who lives in the house.

The hotel man had a lawyer in court who refused to let his name to any except the court officers.

John H. Naughton, a liverman, of No. 61 Lexington avenue, furnished the bond.

The presence of Ferris in the house, No. 14 East Twenty-seventh street, mystified the police. He claimed he had a friend in the neighborhood, that he had seen the door of the house open and, mistaking the house, had walked in. He had gone into the bath room on the second floor only to be discovered by Frank Costello, who lives in the house. Costello told Frederick W. Bottger, the proprietor, and a fight followed. Pursued by Bottger and Costello, the intruder ran and was caught at Twenty-sixth street and Madison avenue.

Ferris told Lieut. Funston, who is in charge of the Detective Bureau at night, that William R. Woods, proprietor of the Hotel Broadway, and his superior at the Gotham, would bail him out. When Mr. Woods arrived at Police Headquarters he explained that as he was a member of the Grand Jury he could not furnish bail. He went out, saying he would hunt up a bondsman.

Mr. Ferris stayed in a cell all night. Mr. Woods expressed his surprise at the plight of Ferris. "I can't understand it," he said. "Ferris is not a drinking man and I don't see how he could have made such a mistake unless, as he says, he has an acquaintance in that neighborhood and got into the wrong house."

Ferris had rings and other jewelry to the value of several hundred dollars with him when he was arrested. The clerk at the Gotham insisted he was a guest and not connected with the management, but this was disproved by the statements of Mr. Woods.

Bottger insisted that the door of his house had not been ajar and that some one must have let Ferris in.

SAMARITANS ARRESTED.

Found a Woman, but Drove Wrong
Trying to Find Owner.

Henry Thomas, twelve years old, 610 No. 37 Madison street, saw a horse and wagon near his home today with no driver about. Henry told Joseph Bluelo, thirty-four years old, of No. 39 Gouverneur street, Brooklyn, was on the wagon, and they decided to take it there.

On the Williamsburg Bridge, Policeman McCarthy arrested them for driving on the wrong side of the road.

In the Bedford Avenue Court Magistrate Higginbotham started an investigation that located Francis Pratt at the Havemeyer street address, but that he had once owned the team, but that he had sold it to a man on the East Side in Manhattan. He had forgotten his name. The boy Henry was allowed to go free, but Bluelo was held.

SENATOR BEVERIDGE UNDER THE KNIFE

Operation Declared Successful and Patient Expected to Leave Hospital Soon.

BALTIMORE, March 11.—United States Senator Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana, underwent an operation at Johns Hopkins Hospital today. While it was delicate, the operation was said to be not of a serious character and the surgeon declared his patient's condition was gratifying. He expected Mr. Beveridge to be able to get about without any trouble within a few days.

From all indications the surgeon, added, the operation was in every way successful.

WON RACE WITH DEATH.

Judge H. E. Howland Crosses Continent in Record Time.

PASADENA, Cal., March 11.—Judge Henry E. Howland, of New York, and his sister, Mrs. Bellows, have arrived and won their race with death. Alfred C. Howland, a brother, is critically ill and the Judge was wired that if he wanted to see him alive he must come at once. He and his sister crossed the continent in record breaking time. The death of the artist is expected at any minute.

WHY NOT STOP THAT ITCH?

Postage Stamp Will Bring a Sample Direct from the D. D. Laboratories.

Is it worth a postage stamp to you to stop that awful, awful itching itch? If you are afflicted with skin disease, the kind that seems to baffle medical treatment, and leaves you wild with itch, we hope you will not fail to investigate a prescription which is now recommended by many of the best skin specialists, even in preference to their own prescriptions. It is the simple, soothing oil of water-cure compound known as D. D. Prescription and sells at $1.00 a bottle. But a free sample bottle must convince you that the itch is instantly allayed by this prescription. Drop a postal or letter and get a liberal sample bottle of the healing, soothing external remedy, D. D. Prescription, and see!

We feel quite sure that before long you will be cured, and at any rate we know—KNOW POSITIVELY—that your itch will be allayed instantly, the minute that soothing liquid is applied to the skin. Write direct to D. D. Co., Dept. 202, 112 Michigan St., Chicago, for a free sample bottle.
